

PLAN TO BUILD PAVERING PLANT

New Company, Capitalized At $150,000, Will Locate in El Paso.

Work on a $150,000 plant will be started in East El Paso within a week or two by a new paving company which is being organized here with a capitalization of $150,000.

The material to be used by the company will be the product of the El Paso Rock Asphalt company of San Antonio. John T. Cain is one of the organizers of the company. Mr. Cain, who has just returned from a trip to San Antonio, where he inspected the paving done with the El Paso product, announced Saturday that considerable amount of the material which was laid 12 years ago was in perfect condition. Paving of this product is more substantial than the ordinary and can be laid at a lower cost, he said.

The details of the plant have not been worked out and all of the plans of the company have not been made.

Soldier's Wife Charges She Was Forced to Life Of Shame By Accuser

Phoenix, Ariz., June 20.—Nina Wagner took the stand in her own behalf at the trial Thursday on the charge of having stolen $2,000 from W. D. Thornton, and contradicted statements attributed to her in an alleged confession said to have been made to county attorney Laney.

Thornton, the informant, is serving a six-month term in the county jail for the Mann act, after coming to Phoenix with Mrs. Wagner from Oklahoma, where he left a wife, and family and she left a husband in the regular army.

In the stand Mrs. Wagner said that Thornton had gained such a hold over her he forced her into a life of shame.

Black Charges Burleson Is Not Treated Fairly

Congress Tires of Continual Criticism Of Postmaster General.

Washington, D. C., June 21.—Representative Eugene Black made a vigorous defense of postmaster general A. S. Burleson, in the house, Friday, replying to a speech Thursday of representative James A. Gallivan, of Massachusetts, who violently attacked Mr. Burleson and the postoffice department.

In replying his speech for the Congressional Record Gallivan affixed seven magazine and newspaper articles, all of which attacked Mr. Burleson and the postoffice department. Some of these articles were written by persons of known socialist, not to say Bolshevick, principles.

Charge Unfair Methods. Gallivan said none of these articles during his speech, and it is generally felt in the house that he took advantage of the privileges of a member, adding the articles to his speech afterward for printing in the Record.

Mr. Black scored the Massachusetts congressman, not only for his attack on Mr. Burleson but particularly for adding the socialist articles to his speech when printed. Black introduced a resolution that Mr. Burleson be stricken from the permanent record that name of them be allowed to be printed in the Congressional Record.

Speaker Gillett took the resolution under consideration.

Congress Tires of Attacks. Congressmen of both parties are becoming tired of the continual attacks on postmaster general Burleson and his friends in the house from the socialist and radical press. It is felt that Mr. Burleson is often the target for attacks when there is no reason for it, and the sense of fair play of some members is leading them to defend the postmaster general.

"I feel honored by the disapprobation," he said.

BAPTISTS PLAN MEXICAN WORK

Six members of the foreign mission board for Mexico of the Southern Baptist convention are meeting at the First Baptist church planning the work for the church for the next five years in Mexico. They are: Rev. C. L. Neal, of Toledo, Mex.; Rev. G. H. Lacy, of San Antonio, Tex.; Rev. W. F. Hatcher, of Juarez, Mex.; Rev. D. H. Lessor, of Austin, Tex.; and Rev. J. K. The board of missions is making a complete survey of the field for the church in Mexico and preparing a program for future work. The church expects to use more than $500,000 in this work and the board has asked for seven additional educational leaders to place over schools in various parts of Mexico. The teachers will all be American.

This board of foreign missions expects to obtain an appropriation of $100,000 for equipment and supplies for the next five years. The board of the American Baptist Service company, showing Gallivan to have held 50 shares.

Arrests For Drunkenness Decrease Rapidly Since Prohibition Is Enforced

Every year since 1913 there have been fewer "drunks" brought into the city police station, according to clerk of the corporation court Pete Candalaria. Prohibition evidently got an early start, for in 1913 there were 1,895 "drunks" arrested; in 1914, 1,651; in 1915, 1,325; in 1916, 1,050; in 1917, 815; in 1918, 610; and so far this year 153.

The sharp decline between 1916 and 1917 is accounted for by prohibiting soldiers from entering saloons. The drop from 1914 to 1915 is accounted for by the restricted district being moved to the southern part of town.

The decline during, and since, 1918 is accounted for by the war. European and other unsettled conditions, according to chief of police Harry Brown, have caused the decrease.

Prohibition has, of course, he says, hit the figures the hardest blow. "Most of the 153 drunks so far this year," said chief Phoenix Saturday, "have come from across the Rio Grande."

Degenerate Means Politician, Declares Editor In Libel Suit

Phoenix, Ariz., June 21.—That a man who is a politician is a degenerate, was the subject of a libel suit filed by John C. Dunbar, editor of the Phoenix Weekly, at its preliminary hearing in the court of justice today.

Dunbar was arrested on a complaint sworn out by E. F. Miles, secretary to governor Thomas E. Campbell, who charged that Dunbar, in his publication, had referred to him as a degenerate. Dunbar declared the word was not intended to have the meaning of a moral pervert, but that he had intended to convey the meaning that Miles had degenerated in his becoming governor Campbell's secretary.

Defense introduced no witnesses, but was given permission to file a brief.

Hall Suggests New Plan For Aviation Field

Chamber of Commerce Not Permitted To Act; Refers Matter To City.

It is the recommendation of W. H. Hall, industrial engineer of the chamber of commerce, to manager K. M. Roberts, that instead of attempting to create a separate aviation field for the proposed aerial service, that this service be provided for so as to be embraced in the development of the army aviation station at Fort Bliss.

Under the proposed plan to create an aerial postal station at El Paso no arrangement can be entered into between the government and any person or corporation, but the arrangement can also be between the government and the municipality. This clause eliminates the permanently all disapproval as to the chamber of commerce undertaking the establishment of the aerial postal station at El Paso. The chamber of commerce stands ready to cooperate with the city to whatever extent it is possible to make good technical advice, surveys and so forth.

Mr. Hall's statement. In his report on the project, Mr. Hall says: "The city would be required to furnish approximately 50 acres of land suitably situated adjacent to utilities in order to make good technical advice, surveys and so forth. The city of Tucson did not agree to pay any maintenance or operating expense in connection with the proposed station at Tucson. I do not believe that the city of El Paso could do so. The city of El Paso would have to pay for a less expensive than approximately $10,000."

Refers Matter To City. "It has occurred to me that since the army has an aerial station at Fort Bliss, it would be possible to make a small station could be provided, that perhaps negotiations along this line might be made. As stated in the tentative agreement supplied by the air service, no arrangement can be made for purchase of land, or person or corporation except a municipality, however, I do not believe this would be a wise action now in use at Fort Bliss."

The city council took the position that the city was not to be in a position to finance the aerial station and suggestion was made that it was a matter for the chamber of commerce to handle. Under the wording of the agreement to be made with the government, the chamber of commerce cannot do anything and for this reason the subject is again referred back to the municipality.

INVESTIGATOR SAYS 'MUGGERS'

Self Appointed Inquirer Condemns Girl Canteen Workers With A. E. F.

New York, N. Y., June 21.—"I think anybody who has any control over a young woman is doing wrong in letting her go to France and entertain soldiers, dance with them, and so on. Human nature is the same on the mainland as it is in the British Isles. Canteen workers and entertainers were not necessary."

This from Miss Elizabeth Marbury, a self-appointed investigator or something like that, who came to the city of New York on the eve of her 60th birthday. She is the Stars and Stripes, the official publication of the American Expeditionary Forces. The paper then comments as follows:

"Ain't it the truth? Think how much better a mugger you would be today if you had been left alone with your innocent imaginings and your boulevard madonnas and all that. But instead you were lured away to some lowly canteen by a alien girl worker to entertain your dispirited appetites with your best, your most precious, and maybe you actually indulged in vicious conversation, asking her whether or not she would like to go to France with you.
